

GRANADA CINEMA TO OPEN AT LIBERTY THEATRE

DAWN FELDHAUS/POST-RECORD

One chair with lumbar support has been assembled, and 25 more will be, before the opening of The Granada Cinema at the Liberty Theatre. Rand Thornsley, managing director of Rootstock Capital Management, LLC, plans to show the Academy Award nominated documentary "Undefeated," about a high school football team and its volunteer coach in Tennessee, June 1 through June 8. The $13,000 renovation project includes the installation of a Dolby stereo sound processor, upgrades of the projection system, re-carpeting of the steps, painting, adding new lighting and cleaning the curtains. "The Granada was the original name when the Liberty opened in 1927," Thornsley said. "We want people to feel it is a special place to watch movies because of the intimate size." The Liberty Theatre is located at 315 N.E. Fourth Ave., in downtown Camas. For more information, call 859-9555 or visit www.camasliberty.com.
